"Which one is the best" is obviously a question format, so it makes sense that " which one the best is " should be the correct form. This is very good instinct, and you could ...

In your context, the best relates to {something}, whereas best relates to a course of action. Plastic, wood, or metal container? What was the best choice for this purpose?

Both sentences could mean the same thing, however I like you best. I like chocolate best, better than anything else can be used when what one is choosing from is not ...

So, " It is the best ever " means it's the best of all time, up to the present. " It was the best ever " means either it was the best up to that point in time, and a better one may have ...

Either is fine, but (American here) I think "Something that best suits your needs" would be the most common way of saying it.

For LondianESS, selecting the right low-cost BESS supplier involves balancing affordability with performance, safety, and scalability. Companies like CATL, BYD, Tesla, and Sungrow offer ...

Which of them is correct? How should we combine "best ever" and a ...
